List of all regional trade agreements and preferential trade arrangements in the world

On this page, we present a list of 800+ regional trade agreements and preferential trade arrangements that are currently either in force, signed, under negotiation, in consultations, or terminated. We have maintained and updated this list continuously since 2005, and it is released publicly for the first time.

The Help section includes a list of additional resources. It covers Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) as well as provides direct access to the glossary of provisions.

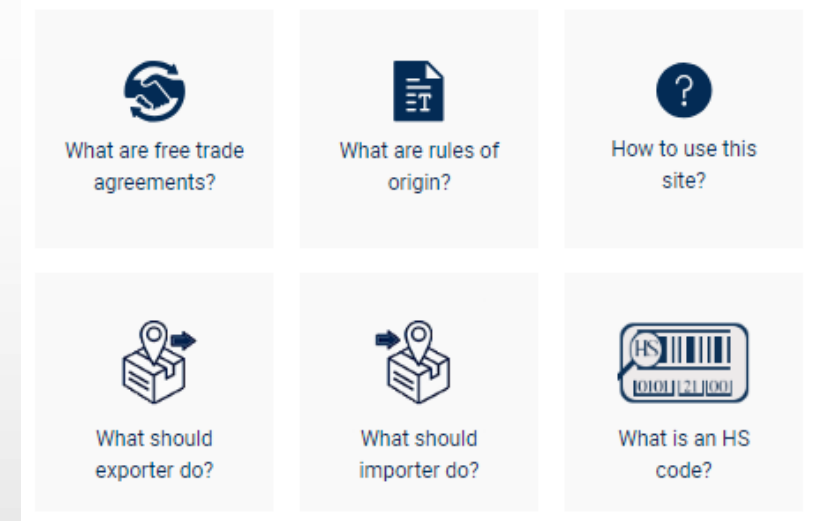

Glossary

- ✓ Accessories, Spare Parts and Tools
- ✓ Advance rulings
- ✓ Appeals
- ✓ Approved exporter
- ✓ Certification
- ✓ Competent authority
- ✓ Cumulation
- ✓ De Minimis

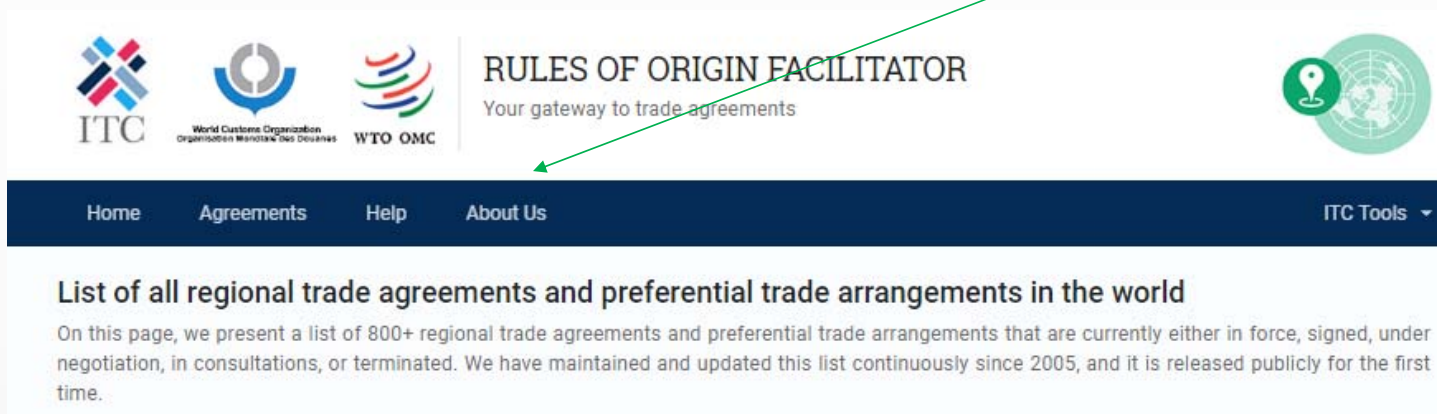

Access the Help page to read a series of sub-pages on the basic principles of international trade. While not exhaustive, they provide a good introduction to many of the topics. The pages also include links to relevant World Customs Organisation and World Trade Organisation websites.

About the Rules of Origin Facilitator

Rules of Origin Facilitator provides user-friendly access to ITC's database of rules of origin and origin provisions in trade agreements. Since 2006, it results from the intelligence synergy empowering companies to benefit from free trade agreements worldwide. The database of rules of origin covers more than 70 pilot trade agreements applied by 85 countries and non-preferential regimes of the EU, the USA and Switzerland. The database on rules of origin is continuously expanded to include new trade agreements, with the ultimate goal of covering all free trade agreements and
